

Happy New Year
Welcome to your storyspace

2020 Offerings from Faraway is Close/Shebana Coelho

The workshops/sessions I facilitate mix writing, metaphor, movement, dance, visualizations and invite the softest, kindest, wildest creative self to come out and play in their own true light. This, for me, has been a process of decolonizing, celebrating what is indigenous to my spirit and my hope is to share that liberating process in a way that illuminates your journey so you - we - all of us - live our brightest light in a network of resonance and healing.

write * journey * embody a seven day writing adventure in a magic mountain town in southern Spain

June 1 to 7, 2020
Capileira, Granada

What will emerge when you give yourself the gift of a retreat to evoke la naturaleza dentro – your true nature - earth wind fire water and ether –and embody the encounter in writing and movement?

If you can't go this time or prefer other dates, please be in touch or sign up for our advance notice email list. We may do one more session this summer.

step into your story

– a special package of guided sessions for 3 months to jumpstart your writing/creativity projects in 2020.

I'd love to work with you to manifest your memoir, fiction, metaphor, hybrid writing, solo performance – or any creative project that is calling you. I've found that often, when you open up your stories to another nurturing point of view, unexpected insights and pathways can illuminate the storyspace

Give yourself the gift of exploring the garden, lit with sun and shade, where your resonant visions live and write them, speak them, move with them, manifest their mystery.

This 3 month package features

- 3 hour-long individual sessions with me in person (in the Santa Fe area) or via Skype
- nurturing responses to your work
- receive inspiring emails + audio messages once a month (for 3 months) - all to catalyze your creativity/writing projects in 2020 so you start the new year by stepping brightly into your storyspace

Fee $345 usd

virtual workshops

recorded versions of workshops that you can do at home

These are recorded versions of two workshops I offered last year. I've recorded them as audio sessions that guide you with prompts, visualizations, writing exercises and there are links to other readings, writings, music, video.

After purchase, you'll receive an email from me with a link to a Dropbox folder (you don't need to have Dropbox to access it) with all the audio and pdf files.

Download and then

Listen, savor, write - at home, at your own pace, your own time, and whenever you're done, email me a few samples your writing and I'll respond with a brief email.

(p.s: please don't upload the audio files to social media – thank you)
